Workmen are now engaged upon the interior of the Martinson building on the corner of Seneca and Chicago; the Lawrence-Seaman building, the "Palace block", on the opposite corner of the street is now well under way, the brick masons being yesterday engaged upon the second story.

Dr. G. H. Martin, son of our fellow townsman, J. M. Martin, is in Honolulu and is one of the revolutionists. The plot for the overthrow of the government was arranged at his house. Owing to unforeseen causes the band opened while he was attending a meeting of the medical society at Boston.

Wichita is the largest and richest city of the great state of Kansas. She stands at the head of the column. This in some measure accounts for the fact that many people taking a front view of the procession, arrive at the conclusion that Wichita is bigger than the state.—Eagle.

Yes, but your base ball club isn't the richest or the largest or the best in the state.—Empire.

It's big enough and good enough to wallopp your club six straight games, nevertheless.

At the "Real Estate Exchange" of P. H. Whelan, No. 122 East Douglas avenue, $22,000 worth of real estate situated on Topeka avenue changed hands yesterday. The property formerly belonged to Mrs. Haskell of St. Louis, Mo., whose interests were looked after by I. N. Singer. Mr. Whelan has a faculty of bringing purchaser and seller together, he having consummated this sale within two weeks from the time the property was placed in his hands. Upwards of $80,000 worth of transfers have taken place in his office within the last thirty days of Wichita property. He has business connections at Tulsa, Minnesota, Butte, Montana, and San Francisco, California, besides a large amount of property consisting of farms and city property in Michigan, having an office at Flint in that state. Ten years of land office business in several states has given him a large acquaintance, and parties desiring to buy, sell or exchange will do well to place their business in his hands. He has 600,000 acres of fine farming lands in Graham county, this state. His office is located at 122 Douglas avenue, room 6 Zimmerman block, Wichita, Kansas.
